J. W. KINCER

TO THE CITIZENS OF ROCKCASTLE COUNTY:

I now take this means of publicly announcing myself as a candidate for re-election for county superintendent of schools.

In making this announcement I wish to say I believe I have learned enough from the experience of this term to enable me to give better service another term than I have this, and if elected
I will give my whole time and attention to the duties of the office.
The new law which goes into effect at the beginning of the new term will require a superintendent to be at the office except when he has official business elsewhere.

There are a great many other things to which I want to call your attention later.

Yours truly,
J. W. KINCER.

was commissioned by Col. Henderson.

They Have Agreed To Marry Soon

Just As the Sun Sets Be- hind the Western Hills

"Kate, my sweetheart, Kate, I must have the answer"—"Yes -- or -- no?"

"Sam, I love you, but I must know something of your plans for the future. I know you have a nice house and farm, but to make a woman happy she must have something to go in that house."

"Now, my dear, I have attended to all that and shall do everything to make you happy and contented. You must have the sweetest little home in Rockcastle county."

"I am just back from Mount Vernon;
went to see Mr. U. G. Baker, told him my troubles and he said, 'My boy, you are to be congratulated—you are certainly making a success.' 'I hear you are thinking of getting married.' 'That's the right step, my son.'"

"Now, make Miss Katie happy by coming to my store and selecting some nice furniture and carpets for the house (and don't forget to get her a kitchen cabinet.)"

"Sam, did Mr. Baker say whether he had any nice Range Stoves or not?"

"Why, sure, Kate, he has them by the car load, and he told me that if I liked he would sell us a Range for five dollars down and a dollar per week till it was paid for."

"Why, Sam! wasn't that nice of Mr.
Baker?" "Yes, indeed, our folks have always traded with Mr. Baker. Father bought knee pants for me from Mr. Baker twenty-five years ago." "Mr. Baker always treats you nice, his clerks are taught to treat you nice, and everyone is made to feel at home in his store."

"Yes, Sam, I have often heard father say that Mr.
Baker had made his success by treating the people nice and giving everyone a square deal." "That's true, Kate."

"Has Mr. Baker any pretty dishes to go in the cupboard and on that table he is going to sell you?" "Sure thing, Katie, he can furnish everything needed for the kitchen.
Why, he even buys churns by the car load." "Dearie, we will go to Mr. Baker's and select everything we need—furniture and carpets for the house—a beautiful Range Stove—all kinds of nice dishes—sifters, strainers, wash basins, water pails and every thing."

"We'll get our Dry Goods—Clothing—Groceries and provisions there too, won't we, Sam?"

"Sure thing, Katie, dear."

"Now, Sam, don't think I am too exacting, but promise me that you will go to Mr. Baker's and buy enough of that 'Victor' paint to brighten up the house with. You know a house should look pretty on the outside as well as inside."

"I know that, Kate, and I shall buy some floor paint and paint the kitchen floor and the porches. I shall get hard oil and varnish and fix up the stair way, too."

"O, Sam, you are the best man in the world, I know."
"Now get some of that good Roofing that Mr. Baker sells, and—now you stop, Sam."—"Nuf sed, we're off."

THOUGHTS OF MOTHER.

Years and years ago, we are afraid to say how many—when the breezes crept in under the low hanging branches and the graceful elm swept the roof of the old home with a loving embrace, when the odors of the cherry and apple blossoms were wafted in from the little orchard near by. We remember the deep, dark shadows under the rough old oak and the soft lights through the white curtained windows, the pleasant rooms, the music and mother, who laughed over our baby antics, grew proud of boyish triumphs, hid her sad heart beats when we left the home fold to win our way in the world, the mother whose hair grew gray in her care for us, whose heart humbled by the multitude of her prayers in our behalf, whose face grew more tender as the years marked their progress upon her cheeks, whose steps faltered and whose hands trembled because her buoyancy had been given freely in our behalf. The mother who stayed in the old home while we were far away. There came at last a letter in another hand, and dear old mother was at rest. Then we went home, but the old time home was gone forever. Ah, we know how trivial everything then seemed beside mother's love.

We know how a kind word would have cheered her heart. We know how business cares crowded out the home letters; and how mother watched and waited for the tardy missive. We know how her heart bled for an old-time caress, and how she went to rest with a prayer on her lips for us. Remember mother boys, before it is too late—you have yet time to show your appreciation of her love. See her hair, it is white as snow, and it has been bleached by care of you. Watch her. Show her your love. Court her as you would a sweetheart, if you would make her happy. All too soon this mother will be gone.—Reformatory Press.

May Run For Congress.—Friends of Judge Leonard W. Bethurum, of Mt. Vernon, Rockcastle county, are starting a healthy boom for him for the Republican nomination for Congress in the Eleventh district. Judge Bethurum, who was transferred with his county, Rockcastle, from the Eighth to the Eleventh district by the congressional gerrymander made by the last Legislature, has taken exceedingly well with his new neighbors and he already has a large following. While in Louisville a few days ago Judge Bethurum smiled significantly when the congressional matter was broached.—Louisville Times.

THE words "Boone Way" are boycotted by the Louisville papers they simply take "connoction" fits. when they hear or see the words. This paper has in advocating the proposition of a national highway through the mountains and which is being opposed by the Louisville press and discouraged by its business and professional men, has brought out so many facts regarding the selfishness of the falls city that their press could not answer without putting them deeper in the mud, it appears they are simply "afraid to open their mouths." We propose to tell more as time passes.

HONESTY does not merely mean that you will not lie with your lips, or steal your employer's money or his property. It means you will not be dishonest in your work by slighting or neglecting it, that you will not steal your employer's time, waste or spoil his goods and that you will do every task to a complete finish, stamp every job that passes through your hands with superiority, with the trademark of your character.—Success.

A MOVEMENT is on foot among the candidates to pledge each and all to refrain from the use of money or liquor in both the primary and final election. It is to be hoped that all will agree to and abide by the proposition.

CLARK, Mercer and Oldham county democratic committee have adopted strong resolutions against the use of money or whisky in the coming primary. What's the matter with following suit in Rockcastle?

C. R. LUKER.

TO THE VOTERS OF LAUREL AND ROCKCASTLE COUNTIES. In offering myself as a candidate for representative of Laurel and Rockcastle counties, I wish to state that since early childhood I have had a morbid desire to qualify myself for an office which, when properly filled, would be a great blessing to the laboring class of people. I have tried to so live that when I had thoroughly qualified myself, there would be a strong demand from the laboring class of people for me to become their servant. I have had a hard struggle in obtaining an education as my father is a poor man and has never been able to help me very much financially. Consequently, I had to resort to hard labor in order to get the money which I spent in school, and I can truthfully say that there was never a cent spent for my education other than what I earned by hard labor, such as rolling wheel barrows and driving steel. However, I feel that this has only better qualified me for the office for which I am now asking the support of the people.

I have had practically two years High school and have had five terms experience in the school room in Laurel county and four terms in Screven county Georgia. I read several papers and try to keep in touch with the times and I believe that I know what the people need in the way of legislation. However, I do not believe that we need many new laws, but I believe that we need many of our laws amended, some repealed and the rest enforced.

I haven't any thing to say against any of my opponents because I believe they are all well known and if you think they can best represent your interests, I believe you should vote for them. I only want fair consideration in the primary and should the majority decide in favor of one of my opponents, I promise them my warmest support in the final.

I hope that I shall be able to see you before the primary and have a personal talk with you, or else, that I shall be able to present to you my cause for the stump. I do not believe that I will be able to see you all personally as I am teaching in the East Bernstadt Graded School and will not get out until the middle of June but I shall endeavor to see as many of you as possible.

Yours for the uplifting of the laboring class of people.

C. R. LUKER.

C. H. Drawbaugh, of Camp Hill, Pa., has a clock which has been running since 1870 without attention of any sort. An electromagnet gives the pendulum a pull at each beat. The magnet is connected by wires with metal plates of opposite electrical character buried in the earth. The moisture of the earth acts upon the plate, generating a low current. Eventually the plates will be eaten away, but it may be a full century before this can happen.

"Pittsburgh Perfect" Fence

Because it's Welded, you can take it Down and Put it Up Without Injuring the Fence

That's a good point to consider. Many a time you would shift a line of fencing from, say, the bull pasture to the hog lot—if it didn't destroy the efficiency of the fence. In "Pittsburgh Perfect", the only fence with electrically welded joints, the stays are permanently joined to the line wires. It is actually a one-piece fence. Taking down "Pittsburgh Perfect" and re-stringing it doesn't hurt it a bit. This is one exclusive "Pittsburgh Perfect" feature of economy perhaps you haven't thought of. Our catalogue, sent free, tells of many more. Get a copy at once.

Made in Different Styles for FIELD, FARM, RANCH, LAWN, CHICKEN, POULTRY and RABBIT YARD and GARDEN. Every Rod Guaranteed. Ask your dealer for "Pittsburgh Perfect" and insist on his furnishing it. Do not allow him to persuade you that some other fence is just as good. If he doesn't sell it, write us direct.

The Jacksonian, of Cimarron, Kans., publishes the following concerning, D. Francisco, a former Rockcastle citizen and a brother of our worthy countryman F. Francisco, of Brodhead, who departed this life at San Diego, California on April 22nd.

D. FRANCISCO.

"The old order changeth." As in the sinuous, wavering line of battle, when one falls, another steps in the breach and keeps up the fight, so through the shifting scenes of years, the ranks of the citizenry of Gray county, altho always pressing forward, some times break and falter, as one of the veterans fall. And as we look through the mist of years, the mantle of charity and neighborliness drops over them all and obscures the little differences which occasionally come up. And so, when the caravan moves up through the streets of Cimarron and on over the hill, through the pure, sweet sunshine and the soft Kansas air, and as one by one the sons of Gray county are laid away beneath the pioneer-like buffalo sod, the answer comes from every heart, "Rest in peace." The social spirit overcomes all prejudices and differences and Death, the great leveler, crystalizes the social spirit and causes us to halt and see things in their truest and best light. He was a neighbor; and he has gone.

"Dee" as he was familiarly known, was too big a factory in Gray county to be forgotten soon. No one could go through the pioneer days and the stirring days of county seat troubles and politics and changing commercial conditions without being near to the vitals of the county. He was one of the links between the old and the new, of which there are not many left. The three score years are accomplished and Gray county says good bye to Detroit Francisco, one of the makers of its history.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

Detroit Francisco was born in Powell county, Virginia, Dec. 27 1852. His parents removed to Kentucky in his infancy. His father died when he was between three and four years old, and his mother died when he was about 12 years old.

He was reared in Rockcastle county by a brother, Fullen Francisco. He had four brothers and a sister who survive him; Fullen, of Brodhead, Kentucky; Jasper, of Missouri; Boone, of Oklahoma; W. J. of Lawrence, Kansas; and Mrs. Rosanna Graves, of Kentucky.

"In his twenty-first year he was united in marriage, on the 24th. day of July, 1873, to Mary E. Hilton, in Kentucky, who survives him and mourns her loss. To this union were born seven children, four sons and three daughters. The elder son, Francis, grew to manhood and was a prosperous business man at Lugalla, but his life was cut short several years ago. A younger son, Fullen, died in infancy; the other two sons, James and San Francisco, still remain and are with us. The daughters, Mrs. P. C. Egbert, of Cimarron, Mrs. C. D. Jennings, of Bucklin, and Mrs. W. H. Peters, of Ashland, remain to mourn his death.

Every stock holder of the Mt. Vernon Fair Association who has not already signed and acknowledged the amended articles of incorporation, will please call at J. You are not obligating yourself for anything in signing this document but it is necessary that two thirds of the stock holders sign and that the same be filed with the Secretary of State at once. If you have not already signed please do so at once. Mr. W. H. Fish who will take your acknowledgment will cheerfully explain any part you do not fully understand.
